IT'S HELLO TWOO YOU

★ THIS little owl is in a happy mood – giving a wave to the camera. The bird was having a hoot hopping between logs while searching for food. It even appeared to pose like a gymnast on a tree stump. The pictures were captured by snapper

Stefan Cruysberghs, 47, in the Hageland, Belgium. He said: "The owl perched in one of the higher trees and swooped down to catch worms." "These cute owls are loved by nature photographers, they even wave to some of them."
